SPIRITUAL MIND TREATMENT FOR ABUNDANCE

There is one Life, one Mind, one Presence, one Power, one Love-Intelligence that is the essence of all creation and the substance of all form. This One is Infinite Goodness breaking forth into creation in every moment and every place. It is the source, the supply and the sufficiency of all. It is all of this and more. I am so grateful to know this illimitable One as my very life. It lives me, moves me, breathes me and has Its being as me. Life of my life, Heart of my heart, Mind of my mind, Soul of my soul - God is. Knowing this, I am convinced that the richness and lavishness of Infinite Good is mine right now. Any doubt or confusion about this is now dissolved in the awareness that my life and my source are one and the same. Anything unlike the truth of my being has no entry into my consciousness, for I know that all the Father-Mother has is mine already. In this consciousness, I give and I receive continually, for I allow divine circulation to flow in and as me. I take no thought for tomorrow, for my good is here now, and I am grateful for it. I give great and abiding thanks for this truth, which is already complete and fulfilled in Spirit. I am grateful to know that my good is assured me. In this spirit of gratitude, I now release this Word into the loving activity of Infinite Law that brings it to perfect fruition in the most ideal way and the most perfect time. With deep faith and trust, I simply let go and let God be God as my life. And so it is!
